LEEDOM'S NINE WINS SECOND-HALF PENNANT

Pitcher Brooks' Three-Bagger In Second Brings In Three Runs

EDDIE ROE HITS HARD

By T. M. Juno

Leedom's won the second half of the Bristol Twilight League last night by defeating St. Ann's 6 to 4 in a well-played tilt.

It marked the first time that the team managed by John Mulholland finished in first place.

The heavy hitting of "Eddie" Roe and Brooks was the bright lights of the game. "Eddie" took two solid swats at the ball and sailed them into left field for two three-baggers. He tried to make a homer out of one of them and was out at the plate. Brooks had a triple and a double. The triple came with three on.

"Mike" Riola failed to make an impression with his war club but his work on the defense helped his team very much.

"Mike" De Risi, along with Brooks, made two hits out of two times at bat for a perfect day.

Leedom's, winners of the second half, and St. Ann's, winners of the first half, will meet in a three game series starting Saturday.

Both teams scored in the first. Cooper walked and stole second. Barrett grounded out, advancing Cooper. Riola sent a sacrifice hit to Missera, counting Cooper, J. Fine grounded out, Roe to O'Rioli.

Gilardi walked, O'Rioli sacrificed. Roe tripled to left and was out trying to stretch it. Barrett to Fine to White, scoring Gilardi. Paletta struck out.

Leedom's counted four times in the second. W. Fine combed a single to left. Connors sacrificed Fine to second. White struck but Stallone dropped the third strike and both runners were safe. Wilkerson hit to Castor, who threw to third to get W. Fine, but Fine beat the throw, making all hands safe. Brooks whammed a three-bagger to right, cleaning the sacks. Brooks singled, tallying Brooks. Barrett rolled to Tulio. Riola fanned.

St. Ann's filled the bags in their part but failed to count. Stallone was chucked out by Brooks. Missera and Tulio were passed. De Risi singled to left, loading the hassocks. Castor tried to bunt and flied to Riola. Gilardi whiffed.

Leedom's increased their lead by one in the third. J. Fine doubled to center. W. Fine flied out. Connors hit to Paletta, who made a nice throw to get the runner at first. J. Fine went to third on the play. White got a hit over short. J. Fine counting. Wilkerson skied to Roe.

St. Ann's rallied in their half, but could not overcome the Leedom lead. O'Rioli lined to short. Roe got his second triple, a long hit to left. Paletta socked a double to left, scoring Roe. Stallone walked. Paletta and Stallone worked the double steal. Missera singled off Wilkerson's glove, scoring Paletta and Stallone. Tulio forced Missera at second. De Risi singled through short. Castor struck out.

The carpetmakers did not do any damage in their fourth. Brooks doubled. Cooper fouled out. Gilardi was under Barrett's left. Riola again struck out.

Gilardi and O'Rioli were tossed out by Riola in the "Saints" part. Roe was robbed of a hit by Cooper's wonderful running catch of his line drive.

Mulholland's men almost counted again in their final turn. J. Fine walked. W. Fine hit to Paletta, who errored. Connors grounded out to Riola. W. Fine overran second and was caught off. J. Fine tried to make home and was run down. Stallone to Paletta. W. Fine reached third base on the play. White lofted to O'Rioli.

ANNUAL FAMILY GATHERINGS CONTINUE TO ATTRACT MEMBERS FROM DISTANCE; SEVERAL HELD IN CO. DURING THE WEEK

Yearly Reunion of Fretz Family at Deep Run Church Attracts Nearly 400 People — Gruvers Have 150 Present At Most Pleasing Programme

Reunions throughout this section of the country continue to attract members of well-known families to old homesteads, public parks, and like places, where acquaintances are renewed.

During the past few days several such gatherings have taken place, with the total present sometimes running into the hundreds.

Representatives of the Gruver family held their annual reunion Sunday at Ottsville with 150 present, but a number were kept away by the rain.

As usual there was a program with talks by Alvin Gruver, Bethlehem; Herbert Gruver, Bethlehem, and others, and games and races.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Ellsworth Gruver, Allentown; vice president, Norman Detweiler, Perkaskie; secretary, James Crout-hamel, Ottsville; treasurer, John Gruver, Tinticum; historian, Florence Gruver, Dublin.

Mandolin solos were rendered by Luther Gruver, Fretz Valley; and there was singing by the family.

The annual reunion of the Gruvers of Northampton county and other places in Pennsylvania will be held next Sunday at Oakford Park, near Easton.

Descendants of the late Israel and Sally Worthington held their annual reunion at Washington Crossing, Saturday, with an attendance of twenty-nine, including relatives from Bucks county, Trenton and Philadelphia.

Included among those enjoying the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. Worthington and Lewis VanPelt, and sons, Albert and Allen, of Pineville; Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Martindell and daughter, Novella, and Raymond Martindell, Doylestown; Frank Worthington, Richboro; Alice Barton, Leslie Barton and Marie Barton, Ivyland; Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfinger, and daughter, Margaret, of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Emmor Worthington and daughter, Muriel, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Webster and sons, Albert and Edgar, Buckmanville; Charles, Emma and Alice Hart, Doylestown; Laura Dollinger, Warrington.

At the Fretz family reunion held at Deep Run Methodist Church Saturday, there were gathered between 350 and 400 individuals.

The church, which is in Bedminster township, is near the site where early members of the Fretz family located. Many members of the family had their early religious training there, while a large number still retain membership at the edifice.

Near the church building lies the body of one of the two Fretz brothers who came to America over 200 years ago. A marble marker was placed at the spot several years ago.

This was the fortieth anniversary of the first reunion of this family which was the first ever to hold a reunion. The morning session opened with singing, "Come Thou Almighty King." This was followed by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Tobias L. Fretz, of Germantown. The address of welcome was delivered by J. Franklin Fretz, who now owns and occupies the original Fretz homestead in Bedminster township. Mr. Fretz spoke at some length on the sterling qualities and religious convictions of the pioneers of this family and cited several incidents portraying an unusual honesty and integrity manifested by his forefathers. The rabbit show will be of an educational nature for it will vividly illustrate the value of rabbit raising for the sale of furs and rabbit meat as food.

The officers and directors of the Doylestown Fair met this week and completed additional details for the 1928 fair to be held five days and five nights, October 2 to 6 inclusive.

Thousands of premium lists will be in the mails by Labor Day, Secretary J. Allen Gardy announced. All those that received premium lists last year will automatically receive lists this year.

Concession space for October's fair, is being disposed of at a rapid rate. It was announced. One fact is that the Doylestown Fair is every year attracting more exhibitors and concessionaires.

So successful has been the sale of tickets throughout the county for "three for a dollar", by the merchants, that this policy will again be adopted. Tickets will be distributed about September 1.

An inspection has been made of the new administration office of the fair, the new automobile building that will this year house the largest automobile show ever staged in Bucks or Montgomery counties in a modern exhibition building, and the new grandstand with a capacity double of what it has been in the past.

Horace E. Wilgus, of Philadelphia, has reported that the horse show feature of the Doylestown Fair will again be held on Friday.

Dr. H. W. Turner, of New Hope, president of the fair, has outlined numerous plans for new features this year, including the night and afternoon free acts that have been secured. Dr. Turner is at the present time on an extensive tour of inspection of the various fairs in Pennsylvania, in an official capacity. On this tour, many new things are learned that are put into operation at the Doylestown Fair.

I AM HAPPINESS
I am that for which you are looking. I am the goal of religion. I am the objective of philosophy and science. I am the dream of the world, the great hunger of humanity.

My dominion over men is worldwide. As children they romp toward me. As old men and women they totter after me. I am an insatiable thirst.

Because of me mankind carries on business and commerce. Because of me the scientist labors long in his laboratory. Because of me untold millions of dollars are spent for the purpose of education. For men know that knowledge, health and business are paths to my domain.

My name is written into the most exalted declaration of independence on earth. The right to the pursuit of me has been written in the hearts of men and sealed with their blood. Civilization is my reward, and man's home is my chief dwelling place.

For all that I am a bright dream and a beautiful purpose, the children of men still stumble and fall and bruise themselves in my quest. They still confuse me with pleasure and with riches and with power.

Yet I am as I always have been. I am the same yesterday, today and forever. The children know me and possess me, and the childlike at heart never lost their hold on me.

A PLEA FOR THE MINORITY

Americans like a "good sport." Nothing has a more universal appeal here than good sportmanship. Good sportmanship means giving the other side a square deal, and frequently a square deal requires sympathy for somebody who needs it—sympathy instead of the derision that might be his portion if good sportmanship did not exist. In politics there is always room for good sportmanship.

There is great need for it in the public's attitude toward the intelligent minority in that state or other political division which by the will of a less informed majority places a clown, or worse, in public office.

There are sections where the poverty of resources, industrial conditions and original preponderance of low-grade settlers have combined to discourage progress, to hinder education and almost to prohibit the dissemination of ideas to replace superstitions and prejudices. A section of this kind may comprise the greater part of one state or even several states, but in no case is the entire population made up of people who do not think or wish. Always there is a minority that is urbane, tolerant, schooled and civilized.

Members of these minority groups are both helpless and innocent when the majority that surrounds them elects a pluperfect ass to office.

It would be the part of good sportmanship for civilized folk in other and more fortunate communities to drop a tear of sympathy for the guiltless minority, instead of torturing it (the minority alone feels the disgrace) with a storm of guffawing, jeering, derision and blistering insult.

There's no excuse for illiteracy. In remote sections where there are no schools there are billboards to read.

That hoarse and incredulous guffaw is the response of the seven children to father's reference to "my car."
